

Saturday Observed As Sentence Day In U. S. District Court

United States district court was in session Saturday morning, designated as motion and sentence day by Judge John E. McCall, when court adjourned the first part of the week.

Cases disposed of in the form of motions and sentences were: E. C. Hargrave against the Illinois Central railroad company, remained to state court upon motion from attorney for defendants; a motion to dispose of the demurrer in the case of J. A. Phillips against W. S. McCormick was passed and the case taken under advisement; H. M. Knorr, convicted of violating the federal prohibition act, was fined $250 and costs.

From a motion from his attorney, Will Grace, charged with violating the federal prohibition act, was granted a new trial, the case to be heard June 12; J. T. Chandler, convicted on the charge of larceny from an interstate shipment, was fined $250 and costs; Daniel Rooks, convicted of violating the internal revenue laws, was sentenced to one year and a day in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, and fined $150 and costs.

A grand jury indictment of larceny from an interstate shipment, was sentenced to one year and a day in the federal prison and fined $250 and costs.

Willie Ray, convicted of larceny from an interstate shipment in connection with one of the most daring train hold-ups ever recorded, when a carload of liquor was entered, and much of its contents carried off, was sentenced to serve between three and five years at federal prison, and to pay a fine of $1,000.

Harry Kiersky, E. Devoto and C. M. Silva, all convicted of the charge of violating the internal revenue laws, were each sentenced to one year and a day in the federal prison and to pay a fine of $250.

TEAM CAPTAINS IN CLASS DRIVE NAMED

Team captains were announced Friday night by the division leaders in the campaign of the Character Builders Bible class to raise $25,000 to complete the memorial hall, at a meeting of the executive committee and division leaders held at the class hall. Each division will have 16 team captains, eight appointed from the men's division and eight from the women's division of the class.

The 100 subscriptions, announced Friday night, from Mr. and Mrs. Garner Ransom, Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Lewis and Bernard C. McGee, swelled the total of the advance subscriptions to $14,525, leaving only $10,475 to be raised. Every member of the class will be visited by the team workers and asked to give something. No one not a member of the class will be solicited.

Captains for division No. 1, headed by Norman Monaghan and Mrs. J. R. Martin, are: J. H. Wehman, Jr., Louis Warkie, H. H. Honnell, Hugh B. Jones, C. W. Steinkamp, Eugene E. Jones, E. M. Jackson, C. E. Thompson, Miss Lettie Hamer, Mrs. T. O. Jerce, Mrs. Eugene E. Jones, Miss Maud Moore, Mrs. Ed Dupree, Mrs. Norman Monaghan, Miss Virginia Davis, and Miss Grace Foster.

Captains for division No. 2, headed by Clarence Banning and Mrs. Sam Jackson, are: Robert Young, W. T. Cartwright, Gerald Marshall, W. B. Hill, Taylor Malone, W. L. Richardson, John Goughly, and Sam Levenport.

BARASSO AND MARTIN SENT TO WORKHOUSE

Albert Barasso and Howard Martin got the limit of the law Saturday in Second criminal court, when their motions for new trials were overruled by Judge Tom Harsh. Barasso and Martin, indicted for alleged criminal assault on a 13-year-old girl, who is married and who were found guilty by a jury of assault and battery, were sentenced to 11 months and 20 days each in the Shelby county workhouse. Each also was fined $50.

PAINE SPEAKS TO IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Need of playgrounds for children and proper sports was stressed Friday night by Mayor Paine in a talk made to residents of the section near Bickford park at a meeting held in Leroy Pope school. The meeting is the first of several planned by the recently organized North Memphis Improvement club. Another will be held Thursday.

Plans were being made Saturday to go forward with improvement work at Bickford park, where a playground will be installed and the park generally improved. Joe Brennan was elected temporary chairman of the association Friday night, and Mrs. A. A. Johnson secretary. Several committees were named to proceed with work outlined. Gilbert Schiess, of the city recreation commission, spoke at the meeting.

At the state convention of the B. Y. P. U. at Jackson, Tenn., last week, Clifford Davis, chairman of the Memphis delegation, induced Mr. Butler to come to Memphis. Although Mr. Butler had other engagements, he was so impressed with the enthusiasm of the Memphis delegation that he arranged to change his schedule so that he could appear here.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler were to arrive here at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock they will sing at the First Baptist church, Linden avenue and Lauderdale. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock they will sing at the mass meeting of the City B. Y. P. U. at Bellevue Baptist church. At night they will sing at Central Baptist church.
